

This programming project was done by Kai Oxley and Ephraim Orisakiya. We discussed a majority of the work during class meetings as well as through email. Kai had created the word, 4 letter word, 5 letter word, and 6 letter word classes for the backend part of the programming. Ephraim created the front end classes utilizing GUI basics to create the design and extra backend that can only be done through the front end classes.